IPPB Account Opening Camp for SC/ST Students

Venue: Building III Ground Floor

Objectives:

To facilitate opening of zero-balance savings accounts for SC/ST students under Govt. Schemes. This will help students receive Scholarships, Stipends and other DBT benefits directly in their bank accounts. It also promotes financial inclusion and digital literacy among students.

Proceedings:

An announcement in the daily assembly about the Account Opening Camp was made by the Principal on 10-08-2025. A circular was issued and posted in all student WhatsApp groups, so that students can bring the necessary documents like Aadhar, Photos etc., without fail.

The SC/ST Monitoring Cell of the college organized an Account Opening Camp by inviting IPPB officials to the college campus.

Students Submitted required KYC documents like Aadhar, College ID, Photographs. IPPB Officials & their staff opened accounts on the spot using mobile banking kits. Aadhar authentication and biometric verification were done for each student.

Outcome:

Over 90 SC/ST students successfully opened their zero-balance saving accounts in IPPB during the camp.

All students received their account opening forms and were informed about activating mobile banking.

The program concluded with the vote of thanks by G.P. Babu, lecturer in Computer Science, SC/ST Monitoring Cell Convener. He expressed gratitude to the Principal, IPPB officials staff and students for their cooperation in making the camp a success.

The following are some of the students who received their scholarships through the welfare department to their IPPB accounts:
