

Creative quill – A competition on writing skills – story writing-poetry

A literary competition, titled "Creative Quill," was held on September 23rd at the college premises, commencing at 2:30 pm during the afternoon session. As part of this event, students enthusiastically participated in two contests: story writing and poetry. The topics for these contests were disclosed on the spot, and students actively engaged in showcasing their writing skills. Following a thorough assessment, the results of the competitions were declared in the Assembly on September 27th. The winners were presented with certificates amidst applause from their peers.
